Cheap & Convenient Building.

Door, Sash and Blind Factory.

A. DUNBAR.

HAS been very successful in contracting several contracts for Door Frames, Doors, Windows, Transoms and Sashes, and Blinds, for good dwelling houses and other buildings, to be erected in this city, the coming season. He has erected first workmen in his employ and has superior stock, so that he is now able to supply to those about to build the best articles of ... Frames, Window Frames, Sashes, and Blinds, made to any dimensions, and of superior finish. Either for a whole building or for a less quantity. The trouble and expense of building is very much lessened by having these articles made separately, so that the carpenters have only to put them in their place in the building.

This business has now become so well systemized that only a small margin is left for knowing beforehand the cost of a dwelling house, while the work is of a uniform excellent quality.

Any one interested can examine specimens of the work at the factory near the Rear Place of ..., at the store of M. S. Jackson, on ... change at Bangor, and at other place any article may be obtained of large quantities ordered.

Mr. Dunbar is also prepared to furnish Window Blinds ready painted, and will hang them at the shortest notice.

By long experience, and by determined perseverance, the subscriber is now enabled to suit his customers both as quality and price, and so well organized in the business that no man should now think of building in the old and slow and imperfect methods

Wilbor's Compound of

Pure Cod Liver Oil and Lime,

A CURE FOR CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, GENERAL DEBILITY, AND ALL SCROFULOUS HUMORS

TESTIMONIAL.

Let all read the following, which is but one of the many testimonials being constantly received

Dr. Wilbor: Dear Sir—I have found in the course of a long and extensive practice that the seeds of Consumption are by no means to be found as arising from, a few individual causes, but that any serious draft upon the physical constitution may have the sufferer in that predisposition which induces disease. Thus in fevers in severe colds, and rheumatic affections those great chambers of the human frame, the lungs, being perhaps the most and first sensitive complices on of the human organization, are made to be the principal sufferers, and the last lung which is smaller than the right is generally the principal seat of disease. Consumption consists of such an extension of the air passages as prevents a free dilation in the matter of respiration as is necessarily to pass air in and out of each cell of the chest. While the main requirement of the lungs continues, it is impossible to contract the disease known as consumption.

In a form of long practice, I had found Cod Liver Oil a great and efficient agent. But soon as I see your honorable compound of the ... known as Cod Liver Oil and Lime, I instantly realized the propriety of your combination, being myself an experimentalist (although I was knowing the medical properties of the Lime, which are ... and Acids, I was immediately on put... ... in the treatment of Consumption.

I accordingly applied your remedy and in the first months of my trial, I have found that result most satisfactory. Since the first trial I have ... almost ... ... all consumptive cases upon your Cod Liver Oil and Lime, and have found the medical qualities to be a highly natural tonic and that the ... ... of restoration of the diseased cells of the lungs ... have decayed from various causes. Moreover I ... a careful analysis of your preparation satisfied ... that it was only worthy of the ... ... physician, as it regards a restorative agent, but also as ... ...

The request of Judge Davis to have his protest and answer placed on the records of the Senate was moved by Mr Sheppard, and would have been granted, had not Mr. Barnes objected. He was unwilling and the request was denied A protest, signed by the Republican members of the House, against the action of the House, was also refused insertion on the journals of that branch

These facts show the spirit with which the coalition has carried through the whole affair of the removal of Judge Davis. It has been done with the mere mockery of a "hearing," without any evidence adduced to the truth of the charges against him, without any trial whatever, and without any regard for the equitable and just rights of the accused, or for the proper independence of the bench.

THE WILLS PARTY GOING FOR PIERCE. The last number of the Belfast Free Press, says it "is glad to find the sixteen delegates now elected from Maine to the Cincinnati Convention, the majority of them are understood to be in favor of Pierce's re nomination and none are pledged against him. Pierce's friends in this State defend his action in the Kansas matters to the fullest extent—including his support of the Border Ruffian Legislature, and his threatened arrest and punishment of the members of the Free State Government of Kansas They even go so far as to praise Pierce for upholding the infamous bogus Legislature, and for saying that its still more infamous black laws, shall be sustained by the United States troops—laws which among other things make it felony for a man even to question the rightfulness of holding slaves in the Territory.

THE BOSTON RUFFIANS.—It is stated by a New York gentlemen, who has recently returned from Kansas, that he is satisfied from reliable information, that at least three thousand Missourians are banded together for the purpose of carrying the next election in Kansas, in opposition to the free soil sentiment of the majority of the actual settlers.

The slavery propagandists are making a desperate effort to secure that territory for slavery. With this view, the pro slavery men in Congress, and their sympathizers, will resist as long as possible the admission of Kansas as a State. The people of the United States who are in favor of freedom should urge on the immediate admission of the new State, with the Constitution already presented

The snow in the woods is rapidly disappearing, and only a small portion yet remains The streams and brooks have been well supplied with water and the ice in them is fast breaking up The ice in the lakes is getting thin and treacherous The water in the main river is now nearly up to the usual spring freshet

This mild and early weather of the ice will generally prevent the intended spring drive of logs and dependence must now be placed upon fresh freshets for bringing in most of the newly cut logs, on the Penobscot waters

The river is clear of ice from the red bridge in this city to Sunkhaze

A PERSISTENT DISSOLUTION PAPER. T J D Fuller of this State voted with the extreme Southern pro-slavery men against sending a committee to Kansas to investigate the wrongs and outrages. He goes for smothering and covering it all up Bin party in this State heartily endorse his action

Baltimore American

Justice to Gen. Harney.

Messrs Editors of the Whig and Courier

In an article headed "Indian Affairs of 1855" and copied from the New York Times into your Daily of the 4th inst, I extract the following:

"Fortunately, for the credit of the country, the history of the Sioux Expedition is short—It consists solely of the report of the Commander, Gen Harney. He describes clearly and frankly the massacre of the Blue Indians at the Blue Water on the 3d of September without apology, and without any attempt to conceal its atrocious character, evidently considering that it is his business to kill Indians and not to justify himself for doing so.

We observe with surprise and deep regret that in transmitting this report to the Adjutant General, Gen Scott omits his Secretary to write that 'the General-in-Chief highly approves of the conduct of Gen. Harney and his command.'"

Having spent several weeks the past winter upon our Western Frontier, in the vicinity of the Sioux Indians, I have had a good opportunity to become acquainted with the character of those Indians, and have taken especial pains to inform myself of the measures taken by Gen Harney to bring them to terms I have therefore every reason to the opinion which so generally prevails at the East, that Gen Harney had been unnecessarily severe in his treatment of them.

This opinion is caused mainly, I think, from a foolish newspaper report of the affair on the Blue Water, probably made by some young officer or private in that engagement, and which has been adopted by the public as a true statement of the case.

From all the information I have been able to obtain (and my facilities for getting at the facts in the case have been good,) I do not hesitate to say that I am fully satisfied the course pursued by Gen Harney is the only one that could be effectual in restoring peace on the frontier. These Indians for several years past, have been preying upon and murdering the emigrants who cross the plains, until it has got to be a regular business with them. Government has from time to time threatened them with vengeance, but when they had them in their hands have as often let them off by their promising to behave better. This policy had been carried to such an extent, that the Indians lost all fear of the Government, and consequently became unmanageable. Gen Harney, when he found he had the Indians in his power, who had for years been committing these outrages after the most solemn promises frequently repeated, thought they should desire be made an example of them Had this policy been pursued at an earlier date, no doubt hundred of valuable lives would have been saved and peace long since restored. It is not true as stated, that Gen Harney slaughtered little Indian women and children at the battle of the Little Blue Water The men and women dress alike, and both wear their hair long—the men braiding a scalp lock upon the top of their heads. It is difficult when their heads are covered to tell which is the male, and which the female It is not to be presumed that Gen Harney's cavalry in the excitement of the charge at the Blue Water stopped to make any close examinations and doubtless some women were killed in that attack.

That Gen. Harney found the real perpetrators of the brutal outrages upon the plains, no better evidence is wanting than the scalps of white men, women and children, together with mail matter and other property taken from them at that battle

The Indians at the West hear about the same compliments to our friendly Indians, that a temperance does to a wild wolf Hear alone will control them. They call Gen Harney the "Wild Beast." His name is a host. The affair at the "Blue Water," has given him such a control over the most of the Sioux Bands that if an outrage is committed, all he has to do is to notify them to bring the offenders before him, and they dare not do otherwise than promptly.

I make the following extract from the report of Thomas S Twiss, Indian Agent in the vicinity of the Upper Indians "The Sioux war is near its termination If I am not totally mistaken in my judgment, all of the Sioux bands to the North will submit to Gen Harney's terms and sue for peace, the affair on the Little Blue Water, on the 3d of September, was a thunder clap to them, and has opened their ears, and given them to understand truths which they did not believe before chastisement."

It is an easy matter for people there at the East surrounded by all the comforts of civilization to sit in the chimney corner, and upon mere newspaper authority pass judgment upon our gallant Officers and men, who are daily perilling their lives among the wily and untamed savages of the distant West.

Let such as are so ready to condemn, place themselves in the position of those of our citizens who occupy the outskirts of civilization, who are at the mercy of the Indian hordes of the plains, and they will be likely to weigh the matter carefully before they bestow censure in such unmeasured terms. For be it from me to justify any severity in our treatment of the Indians farther than is actually necessary required—God knows, we have already enough to answer for I wish merely to do a simple act of justice to a valuable and gallant Officer, who, I believe, has been most unjustly assailed.

Truly Yours, F

MRS JULIA SILENCE has recovered a verdict of $2 266 against Alpheus Hayden, for slander in the Circuit Court at Rochester Hayden tried to marry the lady and failed when he slandered her by way of revenge. Revenge is said to be sweet, but we think this rather a bitter pill

A COOL PROPOSITION FROM OLD NICK.—Some weeks since, a grand ball was given in Paris, by the Master of the Empress's Household. Before the ordinary hour for the arrival of the guests, the chaplain of the palace, Monsignor, Bishop of Nancy, who lives in the palace, went into the apartments to see the decorations He did not intend to visit the ball and thought the moment between the lighting up and the arrival of the first guests as the most favorable to see the apartments. But one person, a particular friend of the Master, had already arrived, and by a singular choice was dressed as the devil A green material, fitting tight to his skin, covered his whole person, the face included, two horns ornamented his head, and a long tail, terminating into a fiery and barbed extremity, completed his satanic majesty's toilet The bishop took the ordinary black robe of the Catholic church, and the meeting of these two individuals in a large and vacant room of the palace, produced a strange effect upon both The mask approached and saluted the prelate humbly, with these words—"Monseigneur, permit me to seize the occasion to offer you the hand of reconciliation!"

Col. Fremont on Kansas.

Mr Greeley, of the New York Tribune, published the letter of Col. Fremont, (heretofore given) with the following introduction:

WASHINGTON, Friday, April 4, 1856

The position and perils of the Free-State men of Kansas are commanding the sympathy of brave and generous spirits from every quarter A young commonwealth of barely forty thousand souls overwhelmed at its own ventures by a gigantic and well-conducted conspiracy in a powerful and populous adjoining State, and thereby subjugated to every whim which is abhorred by the great body of its people, and are threatened by the Federal Government, which should be their guardian and protector, with military execution and the sternest issues of treason and grey resort, has a right to the best wishes and most energetic services of every gallant heart. And these Kansas is now assuring.

California was never subjected to a formal Territorial Government at all, but took her position as a State at the outset of her distinct political existence Without any enabling act of Congress, of permission from a Territorial Governor or Legislature she openly called a Convention, elected and held at, and thus framed and adopted a State Constitution, by which Slavery was excluded from her area—Among the prominent actors in these movements was Col John C Fremont, one of her American pioneers, who, for his conspicuous agency in making her a Free State, has never been forgiven by the all-powerful Slavery Propagandists since established there, to whom he is the object of double hatred as an adversary, and what they deem an apostate because of his Southern birth and education Surprised and astonished by the promptness and determination of the Free-State movement, they had no power to prevent him election for a fractional term to the U S Senate, but they rallied all their increased forces to prevent his re-election; and did it, after a long and and arduous contest In the struggle one of Col Fremont's most determined supporters in the California Legislature was Charles Robinson, a member from Sacramento, elected on a "Settlers" ticket in independent of Nuttall politics, but who was counted on to support Col F because he was a Whig, while the Colonel was classed as a Democrat Mr Robinson, however, resisted every appeal to his party prejudices, holding that, if the Pioneers could make the Southern issue paramount as they clearly did, then Free-Soilism might justifiably do the same Mr Robinson left California soon afterward, returning to Massachusetts to be married, and to come one of the pioneers of the Free State emigration to Kansas of which he is now Governor. He wrote soon after his election to renew his intercourse with Col Fremont, and received a reply, which I have solicited and obtained permission to publish

APRIL FOOL HARM.—The Mobile Evening News tells the following story:

As the Citronelle train was on its downward trip to this city yesterday morning an incident occurred that caused no little amusement to the passengers As the train was approaching Eight Mile Station, a lady quite elegantly attired, with a lovely bouquet of wild flowers in her hand, and her face concealed from view by a handsome veil was discovered standing on the platform The train was ordered to stop, of course, to take in the fair passenger—and to it did. The gallant conductor immediately jumped out upon the platform, cried out as usual, "all aboard!" at the same time raising his hat and politely entertaining his hand to help the lady aboard. She however, did not recognize his gallantry, but stood dumb and motionless as a statue The astonished conductor astounded, involuntarily raised the veil, when, lo! instead of a face of female flesh and beauty, the words 'APRIL FOOL,' inscribed on a black slight wood chunk, met his astonished vision He started back, gave the signal, and he off with unusual violence, jumped aboard, exclaiming to the innocent engineer in a stentorian voice—"who the —— told you to stop here!"

The sequel to the story—remarks the Daily Advertiser, was richer than the foregoing When the Mississippi train came along, a few hours later, the conductor observed a female figure standing in the middle of the track, apparently going towards the city The train was on a descending grade, consisted of eight cars pretty well loaded, and was going with considerable speed. Conscious of all this the conductor had the whistle sounded furiously and briskly, yet the figure moved not. She must be deaf, thought the conductor and ordered to slacken speed, and sound another alarm—but he was still stood in the direct path of the fire-breathing locomotive, while the distance between the two was being rather uncomfortably decreased

Now, really alarmed, the conductor shouted to shut the brakes hard down and shut off steam; but it was too late! The cow catcher caught the supposed woman and tossed her full twenty feet off, to the horror of passengers and the undisguised terror of assistant superintendent, conductor and engineer all rushing through whose excited brains were uncomfortable visions of inquest grand jury, solicitor, etc. When the train stopped, they hurried with pallid cheeks and throbbing hearts, to the spot where the poor unfortunate was left and lo! it was the same but of wood with the same "April Fool" missing that so troubled the Little Rattle Snodgrass Just then a merry peal of laughter came from the neighboring wood, and a bevy of girls were seen enjoying something very much.

REPUBLICANISM IN NEW JERSEY.—A State Convention, introductory to a Republican organization in New Jersey, was held at Newark yesterday The attendance was large and earnest made up of representatives from every county and, judging from the Address and Resolutions, the right sort of energy and firmness desire to postpone all other issues to that of the principal one, controlled the entire body. It will be seen that letter in the session another meeting of the same character will be held at Trenton, to take action upon questions of National and State politics—N. Y. Tribune.

"Everyone, madam, but I would like to ask why you look at me so steadfastly?" "Because, sir, I thought you were my husband!"

ATTEMPT AT MURDER AND SUICIDE IN ROCKLAND.—John Burns of Rockland, committed suicide on the afternoon of Friday last, under the following circumstances Shortly after dinner, Mr Burns apparently in his usual health went to a lime kiln, his usual place of business, and where one Mr Tuttle was also at work "tending" the kiln Mr Burns after sitting on a log a few minutes near by where Tuttle was at work, suddenly arose and seizing an axe lying near, advanced toward him, saying "I understand you have threatened my life," at the same time raising the axe he struck at Tuttle the wounding him, though not dangerously, in the head, Tuttle being the more powerful of the two instantly grappled with Burns, threw him upon the ground, and took the axe from his possession. He then went to his house to have his wounds dressed, and informed his neighbors what had happened The friends of Burns immediately went in pursuit of him, and found him struggling in the dock. On being taken from the water it was discovered that his throat had been cut with a razor which was lying near a pool of blood on the wharf Medical aid was immediately called in, but the unfortunate man died in a few minutes—Lincoln Democrat

Every Republican should be ready to speak out in defence of his principles at any time and in any place—we all should be ready to rebuke with truth the false and scurrilous statements which the unprincipled adherents of Wild Cat policy are continually putting forth—and which are unsophisticated individuals are ever gullible enough to believe Let the people understand who are the real friends of the Union, and who are its real enemies Let them understand that the Republican party is devoted to the preservation of the Union by the maintenance of the Constitution—and that the so called democratic party is striving to subvert the union to the interests of the Slave power—Lincoln Republican

MORE FILLIBUSTERING.—The steamer Orizaba, Capt Lindenbaugh, is one of the North Star Line, sailed from New York for San Juan Nicaragua, on Tuesday Warrants were issued against a number of her passengers, charging them with organizing a military expedition against Costa Rica. Mr Joachimson, the Deputy U S District Attorney, succeeded with difficulty in getting on board just as the ship was pushing away, and it was thought that he would be carried off an unwilling passenger. But orders had been given to the revenue cutter to prevent the sailing of the ship till the Marshal consented. She lay to, and the officers came on board and prevented three men

The Orizaba had some five hundred passengers and of the eleven hundred were unquestionably bound for Gen Walker's army

Mr Allman was smoking in his store where there was an open keg of powder, at Gallatin Mine, when suddenly the walls were seen to spread with a loud crash, and the building became a mass of burning ruins. Mrs. Allman was taken out alive, badly bruised, but her husband perished in the building

Recently one of the most renowned French pulpit orators, the Abbe de Deguerry, observed in a sermon, "Women, now a days, forget when at the dressing and splitting of their dresses that the gates of Heaven are very narrow"

Pleasant Weather.

Thank God for pleasant weather!
Chantut merry rills
And crystal streams together,
The rejoicing hills!
Thank God, in teeming valley!
The kine in fruitful plain
For the golden sun shine,
And the silver rain!

Thank God, O good the Giver
Shall not sparrow rivers
Rejoice, of all the rivers
To the nodding trees!
Thank Him, bud and birdling!
And ye fern and fungi!
Mingle in thanksgiving
Every little thing

Thank God with cheerful spirit,
In a glow of love
For what we here inherit,
And for hopes above
Universal Nature
Reacts in her birth,
When God in pleasant weather,
Smiles upon the earth!

The Pleasures of a Rainy Day.

BY ANDREW

I get up in the morning,
As pleasant as you please
Oh Borfos—it's still raining,
With pud up to your knees

All Nature a wet and dirty
Giving every in the blues,
All seem sick, but you can pity,
When we bed them dirty shoes.

I cocks down to breakfast,
Each one yawns and sighs
"Oh dear me will this ever last
I almost wish to die"

Your new umbrella's moaning,
When you would go out
But there's no use in grieving,
So mad for pass about.

Such awful dirty streets
I in surge would never seen
Muddy dresses muddy feet
Most meat every where

I am glad to go for hours,
At home two days
But me I likes a shower
Or worse or of rain

So I will close my song
At this little grey or
And I be pertain the long
Before the sky grows fair

Good Misses Sun please shine,
Mek me like dry it summers
So that no more we can find
A chance to dry our feet

Below we place some comments of a Boston paper concerning a new chemical medicine, which seems to be taking a good deal of attention

Arnold's Globules and Vital Fluid—Their Process of Action—They neutralize poisons in the blood by giving it Hydrogen and Oxygen—the elements of pure fresh air; and they supply vitality in like manner by their chemical agency The human system is entirely composed of chemical elements, and when the vital principle of health is wanting, something to again supply the system with it is required. Chemical power is needed to restore the lacking chemical element. The Globules and Vital Fluid afford it amply, by giving the elements of pure air to the blood They have like properties, with exception that in the Fluid the cathartic power is absent and a laxative is substituted, and a greater degree of alterative power is infused—Yankee Blade

THREE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE

ARRIVAL OF THE

WASHINGTON AT NEW YORK.

New York, April 1

The Washington arrived at 7 o clock this morning, bringing Liverpool dates to the 25th and London to the 26th

The peace treaty was not signed

Matters at the Paris Conference were not harmonious, owing to difficulties between Prussia. Peace however, is considered certain Kentually certain

The British Admiralty have sent out the steam frigates Tartarus and Dragon in search of the Collins steamer Pacific.

The Copenhagen correspondent of the London Times states that the Danish Government had submitted to the Copenhagen Council a proposal of capitalize both of the Sound dues by fixing 30 millions dollars as the amount which Denmark claims. It states further, that the United States Government declined taking part in the Conference as the question would do all probability be settled without their co-operation

Mr Buchanan would leave Southampton for Havre on the 10th April in the steamer Hermann. He goes to Paris accompanied by Mr Cushing American Consul for London and Mr Dickey American Consul for Southampton. He would visit the Hague before his return

According to the London Times the difficulties at the Paris Conference demand put forth by Prussian Plenipotentiary to be submitted to sign the treaty of peace at the same footing, and in the same order as Prussia had been a party to the treaty throughout. It is said that at the meeting on the 22d April it was held on the 24th but nothing of its deliberations had transpired

The opinion that the Conference would ultimately resolve itself into a European Congress is strongly believed

BANGOR, (Me) April 11—Meteor.—At 9 o'clock this morning, a large meteor fell to the south of Belfast, shaking the buildings in that city, and was distinctly heard in Rockland and neighboring towns. The noise resembled the explosion of a powder mill. It is not known where it fell.

FROM ST DOMINGO.—Our correspondent in St Domingo city, writing on the 15th March, confirms the reports which had previously reached us from other sources, of the immense losses sustained by the Haytien army in the battles of Santome, Cambronnal and Sabana Largo, when on its march to invade the Dominican. The intrepidity of the Dominican troops their rapid movements, and extraordinary dash of the master and sabre sword, enabled them to completely route Soulouque's forces, when he had Gen Le Fleur and many thousands of his men killed General Santhonax ordered the capital at the head of his triumphant army, amidst popular rejoicing and the Te Deum. The Dominican Senate was about to ratify a treaty of commerce and extradition with the United States, identical with that of Chili. Lamoneau, notwithstanding the opposition of the representatives of France, Spain and England.—N Y Herald.

PATHETIC.—Mr Southson, who, by the way, has a holy horror of grammer and orthography, thus describes the departure of a friend:—"When I arrove at the house of my dissevered friend, he was perspiring his last. I stood, by his bedside, and said as he was too far gone to talk brother if you feel happy now, just squeeze my hand, and he squize it."

Securing Patents for Inventions.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH THE U S PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON,

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State Street, opposite Kilby St.

BOSTON

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS—The subscriber, (late Agent of the U S Patent Office under the Act of 1837,) determined to present advantages to applying for patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements, whereby, on application and consultation by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal, through him within thirty days after the rejection

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber and as SUCCESS is THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents These, besides the extensive library of legal and mechanical works and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting infringements, and infringement of patents All necessary of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there and here saved inventors

Copies of the claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington Patents secured in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries, through agents of the highest respectability

R H EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R H EDDY Esq of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. Possessing, during that period, my official confidence in a high degree, and being thereby brought into professional intercourse with him, I became well acquainted with his character and standing as an honorable man and gentleman, and as a correct and reliable business man. He is a gentleman of strict integrity and honor, and I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications for a patent in a favorable condition for an early and favorable action at the Patent Office

EDMUND BURKE

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner

"WASHINGTON, D C, Jan 17 1855—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents R H Eddy Esq of Boston has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law and the rules of practice of the office, and from the zeal and ability as well as the industry with which he has attended to his business, he is one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have been officially in course

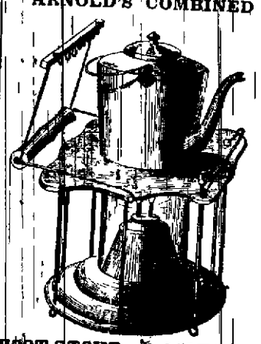
ARNOLD'S COMBINED



FOOT-STOVE, LANTERN AND NURSE-LAMP.

ALBERT NOYES having purchased the exclusive right for manufacturing and vending in Penobscot county, the above valuable invention is now prepared to offer them to the public

As a FOOT STOVE, it answers an excellent purpose as it can be sufficiently heated in less than one minute to warm and dry the feet in the coldest winter weather and will be found to be an indispensable article in traveling It is heated by an oil, alcohol or fluid lamp the flame of which is protected from every external object

As a LANTERN it answers all the usual purposes, and is less likely to be overset or get broken and can be used as a house lamp with equal advantage

As a NURSE LAMP, and in cases of sickness, its efficient advantage in keeping drinks or food dishes warm beside giving the light desired and for cooking in small quantities For making tea &c it will be found very convenient as a quart of water can be boiled in fifteen minutes, and a full tea heat in the same length of time

In fact, the various purposes to which the heat of the apparatus can be put may be readily conjectured by every one No further description is required to do any one can misunderstand its general utility To say any thing more respecting its adaptability to a hundred purposes would just be telling what our readers can all see at once for themselves

HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

Compound Fluid Extract Buchu

IS A CERTAIN, SAFE AND EFFECTUAL

For Diseases of the Bladder, Dropsy, Stone in the Bladder, Gravel, Weakness, Nervousness, Low Spirits, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Pain in the Side, Back and Limbs, Sallow Complexion, Eruptions on the Face, Pimples, Blotches, Humors, and all Diseases of the Skin, Scurvy, Mercurial Diseases, Secret Diseases, Female Complaints, Obstructions, Irregularities, Pains and Weaknesses, from whatever cause they may have originated, and no matter of how long standing they may be.

This preparation is entirely vegetable, and by its action upon the kidneys, bladder and urinary organs, it purifies the blood, and thereby cures the above complaints, and all diseases of the skin, from a common pimple or blotch, to the most inveterate scrofula or leprosy. By its use, the poisonous matter is entirely expelled from the system, and a healthy action of the digestive organs established. Thousands have been cured by this medicine, after all other remedies had failed, and many who had been given up by their physicians as incurable, have been restored to perfect health by its use.

This medicine is prepared in vacuo, by which process the medicinal properties of the buchu are retained in their full strength, which cannot be the case when prepared by the usual method of decoction, as the most volatile and valuable parts of the buchu are lost by evaporation in the process of boiling. Explanatory pamphlets, containing certificates of cures, may be had of agents gratis.

Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.

Delivered to any address, secure from observation.

Depot 104 South Tenth street, Philadelphia.
